

Mr. G. Panayiotou

THE POLITICS, PHILOSOPHY AND ECONOMICS SOCIETY (PPE SOCIETY)

A New Learning Society at St Michael's

ARISTOTLE 384 BC – 322 BC

Aims of the society

1. To promote the study of Politics, Economics and Philosophy at St Michael's and the local community as a whole.
2. To organise and deliver events (talks, debates, speeches) invite guest speakers and raise awareness of political, philosophical and economic issues to the student and local community.
3. To produce and publish a quarterly journal containing academic articles and reviews written by students.
4. To organise trips and excursions.

The first speaker to the newly founded PPE society will be Tina Stowell, Baroness Stowell of Beeston, MBE

Lady Stowell will talk about several important issues such as the role of the media in politics and the reform of the House of Lords. It is a unique chance to meet and talk with a life peer of the Realm. Do not miss it!

(Date to be confirmed)

♦ The officers of the society:

All officers will be elected and will serve one year term.

1. President: His/her responsibilities will be to oversee the work of the society, organise events and chair meetings and set the agenda, welcome guest speakers.
2. Secretary: To keep/take minutes of the meetings and to assist the president in organising events.
3. The Chief Editor of the PPE Journal: To short list and review articles for publication of the journal and to oversee the process of publication and sale.

Advantages for membership to the PPE Society

For the Year 12's:

This is a very important undertaking for your future career.

Participation in this society will

a) Assist your UCAS application (personal statements)

b) Boost your CV

c) Build your experience and skills

d) Have an opportunity to educate others by raising awareness and independent learning skills

The elections are going to be held soon. Current Year 12's will have the opportunity to lead the newly formed society.

YOU can be a founding member!

For more information contact Mr Panayiotou gpanayiotou@st-michaels.barnet.sch.uk

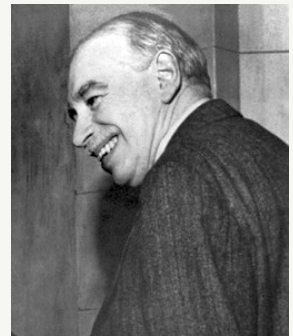

Are you interested in philosophy, economics or politics?

Are you interested in current affairs?

Do you want to improve your debating skills?

Are you interested in intellectual and stimulating conversations?

Then join the PPE Society!

John M. Keynes